The Odd Fellows and their Examples of Reunion.
Under this caption the Baltimore Sun of the 15th contains a well-written article in relation to the recent reunion of Odd Fellows from the different sections of the country in that city. It says: The demonstration of the assembled lodges of Odd Fellows in this city yesterday, for the purpose of celebrating the Union, was a most interesting and important event. The Odd Fellows are a body of men, who, by the following list of some of the British subjects who have been invested, with an estimate of the losses sustained by them respectively.

The Roll of Dishonor—List of Rebel Bondholders.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 15. Many of the holders of the Confederate cotton bonds, in England, avoided the recent meeting in London, evidently for fear of the exposure of their individual complexity in the ridiculous transaction. As the London journals, therefore, seem to be at a loss to know who the happy speculators are, they will be enlightened by the following list of some of the British subjects who have been invested, with an estimate of the losses sustained by them respectively.
